

Array Technologies Names Kevin Hostetler as Chief Executive Officer

April 5, 2022

Appointment follows previously announced retirement of outgoing CEO Jim Fusaro

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M., April 05, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Array Technologies (NASDAQ: ARRY) ("Array" or "the Company"), a leading provider of tracker solutions and services for the utility-scale solar energy industry, today announced that Kevin Hostetler has been appointed Chief Executive Officer, effective April 18, 2022. Mr. Hostetler will also join Array's Board of Directors. He succeeds Jim Fusaro, who previously announced his intention to retire by the end of the year.

Mr. Hostetler brings a track record of leadership excellence, having transformed multiple engineered products and services companies throughout his career. For the last four years, Mr. Hostetler served as Chief Executive Officer at Rotork, a FTSE 250 company, where he led the company's Growth Acceleration Program which drove improved margins, capital efficiency and commercial excellence.

"We are excited to welcome Kevin as Chief Executive Officer to lead Array through its next phase of growth," said Brad Forth, Chairman of Array Technologies. "Over the past few years, the Array team, led by Jim Fusaro, built a strong foundation which doubled the size of our business. As we look toward the future under Kevin's leadership, Array will focus on executing on our long-term strategic initiatives and integrating the STI Norland business. Given his immense experience in senior leadership roles, we are confident Kevin can lead Array to growth and operational excellence for the foreseeable future."

"Array Technologies is a company that I have admired for some time now," Mr. Hostetler said. "Array is a great intersection of my deep experience in engineered products and actuation, and my passion for the environment. Array's innovative products are key to important constituents across the solar industry. As rapid expansion and increased demand for utility-scale solar has taken place, Array has truly made a difference by helping its customers optimally harness the power of the sun. I look forward to working with our talented teams around the world to bring us closer to the future of solar and helping our planet decarbonize along the way."

Prior to joining Rotork in 2018, Mr. Hostetler served as Chief Executive Officer of FDH Infrastructure Services, leading the engineering and construction services provider through a series of acquisitions to support improvement of aging critical infrastructure, such as bridges, dams, and transmission towers. He was Executive Advisor to Wind Point Partners, a private equity firm focused on growth capital investments and leveraged buyouts in middle-market companies. He held ascending leadership roles over seven years at IDEX Corporation, where he served as an officer of the company and the Group President of the Fluid and Metering Technologies Segment and IDEX Asia, which includes operating platforms in energy, water, chemical, food and agriculture. Mr. Hostetler also spent seven years at Ingersoll Rand in progressive P&L leadership and business development roles within the Industrial Technologies Segment.

Mr. Forth added, "On behalf of the Board of Directors, I'd like to thank Jim for his leadership and steady hand as he guided Array through a period of rapid growth and global market expansion. He was instrumental in leading Array through important milestones including the development of our SmarTrack™ software solution, our initial public offering and the acquisition of STI Norland, among many other achievements. Jim also prioritized people, fostering a culture of innovation that will remain core to Array's identity."

"It has been an honor to serve as Array's CEO at a time when renewable energy, and solar in particular, are being embraced more than ever before," said Jim Fusaro. "I believe Array is incredibly well-positioned to be a leading force behind the energy transition to renewables and I have great confidence in the company's growth prospects under Kevin's leadership. I would like to thank my colleagues and fellow Board members for their outstanding contributions to the organization throughout my tenure. I am committed to facilitating a smooth transition and ensuring the team's continued success."
